Supplemental Data Form Instructions

The Supplemental Data Form (SDF) may be used to supplement the information provided in the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The SDF is designed to gather information that is not captured in the FAFSA. It serves as an opportunity for students and their families to share any unique or special circumstances that have impacted them financially and, in their current ability to finance the cost of higher education.

- The FAFSA may be completed online at studentaid.gov
- The SDF may be completed online at <https://www.dordt.edu/admissions-and-aid/financial-aid/supplemental-data-form>, or you may print the form and submit it via fax, email, or by mailing it to the address at the bottom of the page.

A financial aid offer will be prepared after all necessary information has been received.

Apply on Time

The 2024-2025 FAFSA will be available online by December 31, 2023 and will require students and parents to provide 2022 tax information. FAFSA filers will also be required to provide consent to use the Direct Data Exchange which will transmit tax data directly from the IRS. This information will not appear on your FAFSA but will be transmitted to the school(s) you select to receive your completed FAFSA.

Students are encouraged to submit the FAFSA when it becomes available. Iowa residents are reminded that the FAFSA must be submitted by June 30, 2024 to be considered for the Iowa Tuition Grant.

Students and their families are invited to submit the SDF at any time; however, it is encouraged that it be completed prior to the preparation of your financial aid offer. If you should experience a significant change in your financial situation after your aid offer has been prepared, please feel free to contact the Dordt University Financial Aid office directly.

Watch your Email or Mail

You will receive an email on how to access your FAFSA submission summary online from the agency that processes your FAFSA. Freshmen will receive financial aid offers on a rolling basis beginning at the end of January, after all necessary forms have been received by our office. Returning students will receive their financial aid offers beginning in late May.

Section C: Request for Consideration of Special Circumstances

Sometimes families have special circumstances which substantially impact their ability to contribute towards education expenses. Two of the most common special circumstances at Dordt University are tuition expenses to be paid for other family members for private education, and excessive medical/dental expenses. Occasionally other factors may affect the family's contribution, such as: a significant reduction in parent income for the upcoming year, other non-discretionary expenses not mentioned on the form, a higher cost of living than the national average, a significant debt not reported on the form, or a natural disaster. (Special circumstances refer to something unique to your family.)

If you would like to request consideration for special circumstances, please complete the appropriate items below. It is strongly recommended that you complete at least item 23 if the family pays tuition for younger children at a Christian school.

23. Tuition for other children.

- K—12: Please indicate the total tuition expense your family will pay for the 2023-24 school year for siblings in private K –12 education. This figure should represent the tuition expense that will be paid by the family, not covered by an Educational Savings Account (ESA) or any other state funded program (voucher, etc.)

- College/University: If your family has other children that will also be enrolled in a college or university during the 2024/25 school year, please indicate the name of the school they will be attending and their remaining cost of attendance after all grants and scholarships are applied to their account. You may choose to report their 2023/24 education costs if 2024/25 costs are not yet available, and they will be enrolled at the same school in the upcoming academic year. It is not necessary to report this information for siblings enrolled at Dordt University.

Name	College/University this person will attend in 2024-2025	Cost

24. Medical/dental expenses not covered by insurance. There is an allowance built into the FAFSA for these types of expenses based on family size, etc.; however, if you have experienced significant health-related expenses, please feel free to indicate your actual out of pocket medical expenses, including premiums, for the 2023 calendar year.

25. Other special circumstances– Please detail giving specific dollar amounts, timelines, etc. and explain in paragraph form any unusual situations. Attach additional typed information if necessary.

26. All individuals providing information must sign below certifying that the information is correct and complete.
